4. Reports of standing committees:

1. Zoning Committee there were three building permits issued

2. The fire department: nothing to report from the fire department.

3. There is a problem with the pipe going to the septic system. It has froze up again, it has been taken care of, but we will call someone to repair in the spring.

5. Special orders. none

6. Public input. It was suggested to have the zoning committee put together a hand out for new people moving into the township and wishing to build.

7. Old business:

1. Roadwork: nothing to report, roadwork is going well, Thanks to Ron for the great job he does.

2. Projects for 2005: We need to repair Wren and West McMillan roads, as well as the River Edge Cul-De-Sac. Dave will check into prices for a salt shed and the amount we would use it. Pleasant Rd south of Y will be paved in 2006. Some cracksealing is needed as well.

8. NEW BUSINESS

1. Uniform Dwelling Code: The state has issued a company out of Reedsburg to be responsible for our UDC ♦s. The town board after much discussion has chosen to have Allen Breu from Hewitt be responsible for them. He is Cheaper and closer, this was done to help the residents of this township. Motion by Dave Rogers and Seconded by John Neal to sign the contract from Breu, with the amendment of termination of contract with out reason by either party. Motion carried.

2. Spring Meeting for Wisconsin Towns Association will be April 5th at the Red River Ball Room. Wayne will drive, we need to know how many will be going at the next meeting. Sheryl Johnson, Dave Rogers and Wayne are going as of now. Possibly Steve, will let us know at the next meeting.

3. The spring Primary will be on Feb 15th at the town hall from 7am to 8pm

Motion to adjourn made by Dave Rogers, Seconded by John Neal. Motion carried.
